Isha Yoga Center Gears up for a Musical Mahashivaratri

17 February 2020, Coimbatore: Musicians from all over the world are set to share stage at the Isha Yoga Center on Mahashivaratri night which falls on February 21, this year.

The 26th Mahashivaratri celebrations will commence at 6 P. M. on 21st February and go on till 6 A. M. the following morning, in the presence of Adiyogi. Sadhguru, Founder, Isha Foundation will join lakhs of people from all over the world in the nightlong celebrations.

The highlight of this year’s event will be performances by musicians from around the world. Shri. Anthony Dasan, famous Tamil folk musician and Shri. Karthik, acclaimed playback singer who has sung in many south Indian languages will be performing at the event. Shri. Parthiv Gohil and Shri. Adithya Gadvi, two renowned Gujarati playback singers are also set to enthrall audiences with their performances.

Adding to the festivities, ‘Kabir Cafe’, the band named after the famous poet Kabir, will also share stage with drummers from Lebanon.

Starting with the Pancha Bhuta Aradhana at Dhyanalinga, celebrations will include Linga Bhairavi Maha Yatra, Satsang and midnight meditation with Sadhguru, and a spectacular Adiyogi Divya Darshanam.

Maha Annadanam, an offering of food to all visitors, is also an integral part of the celebrations. Hundreds of volunteers are involved in cooking and distributing food to thousands of visitors on this auspicious night. Sarpa Sutra and Rudraksh beads from the Rudraksh mala that has adorned Adiyogi over the last year, will be offered to devotees. The event is free and open to all.

Buses from various districts of Tamil Nadu and neighbouring states have been arranged by volunteers, to ferry people to and from the venue. Special buses from Coimbatore to Isha Yoga Center have also been arranged.

The Mahashivratri celebrations will be telecast on all major television networks in English, Tamil, Hindi, Telugu, Kannada, Marathi and various other regional languages.

If you would like to know more about this, please write to mediarelations@ishafoundation.org.