Thaipooam celebrated at Isha Yoga Centre

8 February 2020, Coimbatore: With offerings from thousands of devotees, the Thaipooam festival was celebrated at Linga Bhairavi in full glory today. Devotees flocked to receive Linga Bhairavi's Grace on the auspicious day, which is the Pournami (or full moon day) in the Tamil month of Thai.

This year marks the 10th anniversary of the consecration of Linga Bhairavi, the divine feminine in her most exuberant form, making this year's Thaipooam celebrations special. Hundreds of women carrying sprouts to denote the end of the harvest season, made the traditional offering to Linga Bhairavi at the Isha Yoga Centre.

A Bhairavi procession gave women devotees the opportunity to receive Her Grace in their towns and villages. The procession passed through Alandur, Madvarayapuram, Idukkuppallam, Gandhi Colony, Chemmedu, Mudduyayal, before arriving at the Yoga Center.

Thousands of women from all over the country visit Linga Bhairavi on Thaipooam to offer coconut, cereal and sesame and seek her Grace.

The Linga Bhairavi Pournami Pooja was held from 5:40 to 6:40 p.m. followed by the Maha Aarti.
