Isha Arokiya Alai to organize free medical camps

17 February 2021, Coimbatore: Isha Arokiya Alai is organizing free medical camps in Thondamuthur and Devarayapuram villages on 21 and 28 February respectively. The camps will be open from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Residents of surrounding villages can also participate in the camps.

On 21 February, a free eye check-up and dental camp is scheduled at Visvesvaraya Vidyalaya Matriculation School in Thondamuthur. The camp is being conducted in association with Aravind Eye Hospital and Muthipalayam Friends Public Charity Forum.

On 28 February, a free eye check-up and dental camp is scheduled at Devarayapuram Government Primary School. It is being organized in association with Aravind Eye Hospital and All Is Well Blood Donation Movement.

Similar camps were held in the villages of Puluwapatti and Karadimadai this month and received an overwhelming response from the rural communities in and around these villages.

Arokiya Alai is a grassroots public health awareness campaign of Action for Rural Rejuvenation introduced in 2008. The initiative encompasses health awareness events and free general & multi-specialty medical camps. The events and camps are conducted across rural Tamil Nadu to create awareness on diet, nutrition, disease prevention, personal hygiene and sanitation.
