Sadhguru condoles demise of SPB, says he brought joy to millions

26 September 2020, Coimbatore: In a tribute to legendary singer S.P. Balasubramaniam who succumbed to COVID-19 yesterday, Sadhguru, Founder- Isha Foundation, said he “brought joy to millions.” Sadhguru said SPB, as he was popularly known, was well liked “as much for his art as his humility & affability.

In a brief touching message posted on Twitter, Sadhguru said, “SPB - one of the most versatile & mellifluous voices that brought joy to millions. A much celebrated prolific artist, he endeared himself as much for his art as his humility & affability. Our condolences to his family, friends & his legion of fans.”

The President and Prime Minister led the country in paying tributes to one of India’s most well loved artists who passed away at a Chennai hospital yesterday after battling COVID for more than a month.
